AWFUL CALAMITY.

Ford's Theater Building Goes Down With A Crash.

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION.

Was Occupied by Five Hundred Employes of the Record and Pension Division of the War Department.

TWENTY-ONE ARE DEAD.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Hundreds of men carried down by the falling walls of a building notoriously insecure, human lives crushed out by tons of brick and iron and sent unheralded to the throne of their maker, men by the score maimed and disfigured for life, happy families hurled into the depths of despair, women calling for husbands, children for fathers, mothers for sons—not an answer to a cry; this is but a shadow of the awful calamity that befell the city this morning. Words cannot picture the awfulness of the accident. Imagination fails to give any idea of the scene. Its horrors will never be fully told.

Its suddenness was almost the chief horror. In the twinkling of an eye there was a change and men who came to the scene of their daily toil this morning will never return alive. Fathers who kissed their loved ones as they separated will have but cold faces to-night.

Other cities have felt the visitation of awful calamities. They have been swept by fire and deluged by flood. In the national capitol of the proudest nation of the earth there has been a catastrophe almost unparalleled in the annals of its history, and on every hand there is the horrible conviction that its genesis is to be found in the criminal negligence of a goverment too parsimonious to provide for the safety of its loyal servants by erecting builings proper for their accommodation.

Between 9:30 and 10 o'clock the floors of the old Ford's theater building on Tenth street, occupied by the record and pension divisions of the war department, fell in as though they had been cards of a cardhouse. On each floor were scores of men at work. Without warning they were carried down as by an awful cataract. The floors were held by iron girders hardly strong enough, heaven knows, to stamp out human lives. The bricks were held together by plaster long since dried out, and the old wooden beams had been in place too long. There was no escape from such a floor.

The government of the great nation could not afford to provide a safe building for its faithful employes, but herded them together in a building whose unsound condition was notorious. Again and again have the columns of the press been filled with the story of the rotten walls.

The news of the disaster was flashed to the four quarters of the earth and it brought consternation wherever it went. The multitude that heard of the disaster remarked on the coincidence, it was in this building that Booth slew President Lincoln and on the same day as the burial of Edwin Booth this very building was the means of killing scores of people. Notwithstanding the fact that in the public press and congress also continued attention was called to the walls of the building and its darkness and general unsuitability and unsafety, it continued to be used for the daily employment of nearly 500 government clerks of the pension division of the war office.

The building collapsed in the midst of an ill judged effort to remedy some of its defects. The moral of the disaster is emphasized by the fact that there are known to be at least two great government buildings, the printing office and the Winder building annexed of the war department, each containing many more employes than were caged in Ford's theater death trap, which are in an equally dangerous condition.

While the work of rescue was going on, men who had been strangers to emotion, wept like children and turned away their faces as the limp and lifeless bodies of those who had been crushed beneath the ruins were brought forth to sunshine they would see no more upon this earth for ever. Women were helped away in a fainting condition and in every heart there was sorrow and in every eye stood the moisture of grief.

The list of the dead number 21 and the list of the injured are 44. J. D. Nevins of Texas being one of the victims.

Jefferson And The Alliance.

While Thomas Jefferson was minister from the United States to France, Col. Hopkinson wrote him telling him that he had heard that he was an anti-federalist, and desired to know if it was so, whereupon Mr. Jefferson, under date of March 17, 1789, wrote, saying:

"My opinion was never worthy enough of notice to merit citing; but since you have asked it I will tell you. I am not a federalist, because I have never submitted the whole system of my opinions to the creed of any number of men whatever, in religion, in philosoyhy, in politics or anything else where I was capable of thinking for myself. Such an addiction is the last degradation of a free moral agent. If I could not go to heaven but with a party I would not go at all." Vol. 2, page 585.

Every intelligent alliance member will recognize this declaration as one of the fundamental principles of the Farmers Alliance. Of course Jefferson did not use this irreverently, but only to emphasize his principles. It is seen, therefore, that every principle enunciated by the Farmers Alliance was enunciated by the immortal Jefferson over a century ago. We have for years asserted that the principles of the Farmers Alliance are true Jeffersonian democracy. This the demagogues denied. After two years of pesistent search we have succeeded in securing a complete set of Jefferson's works in nine volumes, and we intend to prove that the Farmers Alliance and its confederates is the only organization in the United States that advocates the doctrines advocated by the world's greatest patriot. —Southern Mercury.

This is a grange center, and the address was highly appreciated.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIAL POISON
Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so promptly, or so safely as Swift's Specific.
LIFE HAD NO CHARMS.
For three years I was troubled with malarial poison, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was greatly reduced in flesh, and life lost all its charms. I tried mercurial and potash remedies, but to no effect. I could get no relief. I then decided to try S.S.S. A few bottles of this wonderful medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever.

FOURTH DISTRICT INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR.

Doggett of McKinney.—Fred P. Ott, Consul to Breslau, Germany.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The appointment of Mr. Doggett of McKinney as collector of internal revenue of the fourth district of Texas was not unexpected, inasmuch as Senator Mills indorsed him yesterday. Up to that time his chances were considered exceedingly slim. Senator Mills' indorsement gave him the office.

It is not possible to state definitely who secured the position of consul to Breslau, Germany for Mr. Ott, but it is thought that Mills got this place also.

Now that the vacant collectorship of the fourth district has been filled, it is highly probable that there will be no more officers appointed in Texas for some time to come. There is no evidence around the departments at least that there will be any haste to make appointments.

Died of Small-pox.

EAGLE PASS, Maverick Co., Tex., June 8.—Tom Connant, engineer of the Mexican International railroad, who has been sick several days at Jaral, Mex., died this afternoon of small-pox. He was well known in Texas.

SANTA EF ROBERRY.

California Express Held Up—About $2000 Secured.

CIMARRON, Kan., June 10.—The California express No. 3, westbound on the Atchison, Topea and Santa Fe railroad, was held up near this place and the express car robbed of about $2000 at 1:30 this morning.

Five bandits flagged the train and forced the fireman and engineer to accompany them to the express car. Express Messenger Whitlesey refused to open the car, and then the robbers began firing into the door. The messenger was wounded, but pluckily refused to open the door. Then the robbers with dynamite blew the door in and rifled the car. The express messenger's strong box with its contents was stolen. It contained $1000 in silver and other valuables.

Having secured everything in sight, the robbers made their escape on horses toward the Indian territory. Messenger Whitlesey was not badly injured, and completed his run to Santa Fe. He is the messenger who stood off the Dalton gang at Red Rock, I. T., a year ago, and narrowly escaped death at the time by shooting.

Wouldn't Work Both Ways.

"What was that Dawson story you told the other day, Hicks?"

"Why, I pleased Mrs. Dawson very much by asking her if she was hereself or her daughter. Couldn't tell 'em apart."

"Well, it's strange, but I worked the same scheme on the daughter, and she didn't like it a bit"—Harper's Bazaar.

FEAR OF A COLLISION

Between the United States Marines and the Nicaraguan Populace.

NEW YORK, June 11.—A special from the Mexico to the Times says: Private advices from Nicaragua report there is graye danger of a collision between the United States Marines and the populace. The troops, it is stated, have landed and thrown up fortifications at Santa Fe in order to protect the canal company's property. The government of Nicaragua will endeavor to prevent a collision, but the situation is serious.

The happiest years are those when self is entirely forgotten. Those when we strive with heart and soul to create happiness for those around us, sacrificing our own pleasure for others, giving a kind word when perhaps an angry retort is our first impulse, and doing what we can to lighten the burden of some less fortunate person than ourselves.—New York Recorder.

CONGRESMEN INTERROGATED

On the Sherman Silver Law, the Income Tax and the State Bank Tax.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The World presents answers of a majority of members of the next congress to these three questions:

Do you, with the present information, favor the repeal of the Sherman silver law?

Do you favor an income tax?

Do you favor the repeal of the state bank tax?

These questions were asked every congressman by telegraph Tuesday.

To the first question eighty-six representatives say practically "yes," while eighteen say "no." Of the rest there are many who qualify their answer so strongly they cannot fairly be placed in the affirmitive column, and show plainly their inclinations in favor of repeal.

On the income tax forty-five say squarely they favor it, and forty-two say they do not. The southern and western congressmen are the most numerous advocates of such a tax.

On the state bank tax question many dodge the entire question, but sixty say positively they are against repealing the tax, while only thirty favor the repeal.

Garzaites Caught.

LAREDO, Tex., June 9.—This evening Florencio Palacios, an ex captain of the Garza revolutionary forces who created such furor on the bordor in November and December, 1891, came into Laredo and surrendered to Deputy United States Marshal Eugene Yglesias. He was one of the original seven who composed Garza's body guard during his campaign.

This morning Eusebio Ramirez of the Ygnacio revolutionists was captured by Deputy United States Marshal Hall. Palacios gave bond in the sum of $2,000. Ramirez was jailed being unable to give bond. He is said to have been a lieutenant under Benavides, who made the attack on San Ygnacio and murdered the garrison of that place.

Whereas, said congress among other proceedings selected and appointed said J. S. Daugherty as a committee of one to draft and publish an address to the people of the United States on the free coinage of siver; and

Whereas, the said J. S. Daugherty in accordance with said appointment prepared said address, and the same has been published in many northwestern papers; therefore be it

Resolved, that all papers in the state of Texas, regardless of party, be and they are hereby requested to publish said address, and that The Dallas Morning News and Southern Mercury are especially requested to publish these resolutions.

A Bride at 10.

One Rakhal Rai of Sulkea yesterday complained to the magistrate of Howrath, stating that his married daughter, aged about 10 years, had been detained by her husband in contravention of the provisions of the age of consent act. The complaint added that he was not desirous that his son in-law should be punished in a court of justice, but he merely wanted the custody of his daughter. The magistrate has reserved the issue of orders in the matter.—Indian Mirror.

The mind has a thousand eyes,
And the heart but one;
Yet the light of the bright world dies
When love is done.

SUICIDES and bank failures are increasing at an alarming rate in this country.

A SAN ANTONION, William Ferguson, has applied for the position of immigrant inspector.

LAST Sunday there were between 50,000 and 80,000 people on the world's fair grounds at Chicago.

A MOST disastrous storm has been reported from Puachmetta Mexico, and about thirty persons injured.

HENRY ARNOLD, of Greenville, was found dead in his room and is thought to have committed suicide.

THE trial of Miss Lizzie Borden, for the murder of her mother, is attracting considerable attention at Fall River, Mass.

LEE WAGNER, the jailer of Wood county, who was assaulted by two prisoners on April 30, died on the 11th inst. of his injuries.

A TRIP to the worlds fair snatches the vanity and conceit out of a fellow very fast. Our Solons should hurry up and take a trip in that direction.

JUDGE G. A. MANSFIELD, of Brackett, Tex., committed suicide on the 12th inst, by putping a carbine in his mouth and fired.

THIS country is strong enough to leave off protection and other war measures in time of peace and let the people take care of themselves.—Dallas News.

WHILE banks and other great business enterprises are falling all over the country, Texas is nobly battling the storm. Collin county is erect and strong, and McKinney is solid as Gibralter.

A train loaded with 500 Chinamen passed through Houston on the Houston & Texas Central, from Hong Kong, on their way to Cuba, where they are under contract to work on sugar plantations.

THE fact should be kept carefully in view that all of the recent bank failures have been due to causes of a special nature, and not to any general points of weakness in the financial situation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

CIVILIZATION is grand. In the olden times it took several western bandits to rob a poor lonely emigrant. Now two men can stop a passenger train and rob express managers, passengers and all.

THE alliance and the grange have consolidated in Texas, which is eminently right. Now let every labor organization in the United States unite and the ends sought—which are the same in all—can soon be reached.

THOSE who are impatient with the rate of progress and degree of prosperity in Texas, might find consolation in comparison with other states. With all the evils we have here it would hardly pay to flee to those of other states. Texas is rapidly forging to the front in the face of all its hinderances. It is being conceded, now, that Texas is destined to lead all the states in prosperity and that in the near future.

THAT "many men have many minds" is finely illustrated in matters pertaining to financial legislation. No two "statesmen" seem to agree when a system of finance comes to the front, and nothing has ever yet arisen in congress, if we except the tariff question, where men are so widely apart as they are on money matters. The truth is the average member of congress is not qualified to speak knowingly on national financial matters, and yet he feels that he must have his say or be rebuked by his constituents for his apathy. To model a system of finance requires an experience not vouchsafed to the great majority of the representatives in congress. Hence the difficulties which are constantly arising when financial bills are being put into practice.—Dallas News.

AN interesting bulletin, No. 26, is just issued by the A. & M. college to show the cost of cotton production with or without fertilizers. It shows that one man sold cotton at 6 1-2 cts. and cleared $1.37 per acre, while cotton at 10 1-2 cts cleared $12.69 per acre.

The bulletin gives useful information, but it seems to make no allowance for the large per cent of acreage of cotton that is each year washed away or drowned out, hailed out, frosted out, burnt out by drouth, eat out by insects and animals, weighed out, sampled out and figured out by fakirs.

This large per centage of loss should be subtracted from the net profit of $1.37 per acre in order to approach the real handsome sum realized on an acre of cotton at 6 1-2 cts. per lb. [illegible] is more than the avearge some years, and here would be another subtraction.

How much useful information might be added to these bulletins if they would go a little further and figure on the amount of luxury and wealth that tumbles into the treasury of the average renter on cotton land each year. Say the average man raises 20 acres of cotton in 12 months, and by getting $1.37 per acre he has $27.40 to purchase his family supplies, clothing, groceries, furniture, school supplies, doctor's bills, preacher, buggies, pianos, world's fair tickets, sinking fund for a rainy day etc.

This picture might be toned a little by stating that the renter has the benefit of chattel mortgage prices on all he buys and is not troubled about going around to see where he can buy the cheapest. The 50 per cent margin and 12 per cent interest would introduce new and interesting complications to the figures.

Great brainy stalwarts all over the country are raising corns on their tongues by telling the farmer how he can raise the price of cotton by decreasing the acreage, thus cutting down the supply. These solons have eveidently been vaccinated agatnst all attacks of common sense, otherwise they would see the impracticability of reducing the acreage.

First: Because the average farmer is compelled to plant cotton as a condition precedent before he can rent land.

Second: He is compelled to plant cotton before he can get credit at supply stores.

Third: If he is made to believe that there is going to be a reduction of acreage and a corresponding rise in price he is sure to increase the acreage. These facts are so plain that it would seem that even the bankers association though they be like the "wayfaring man," might see and understand.

A more rational method would be to say nothing about the raising of the price by reduction of acreage, but to show how diversified crops would pay and thus accomplish the desired end.

OUR wise, rich and powerful sister, the Dallas News appears as if she had slipped an eccentric in her savage scolding of silver, and praising of gold.

Nearly all the big boys and girls are tagging at silver and petting and praising gold.

Now since both of these children are the legitimate offspring of ignorance and tyranny, why this partiality?

For long continued ages, men have been taught that these metals were the best measures of values because of their constancy and stability of value.

The exploits of black Friday and many other occasions show that these metals are very variable in value, rising and falling as the game of usurer and speculator demanded.

Having no essential value in themselves their worth is only known when they are measured by things that have essential value, to-wit, the necessaries of life.

When gold is measured by these essentials to life, such as food and raiment, it will be seen that gold fluctuates very seriously each year and by cunning and duplicity it is used to export great sums of wealth from rightful owners.

At the same time silver has been decried for the same selfish purpose.

Now we would submit that if silver should be adjusted for the benefit of the creditor why should not gold be adjusted for the benefit of the debtor?

The creditor claims that silver has depreciated 30 per cent.

The debtor claims that gold has appreciated 30 per cent and when we examine the facts by comparing gold with the things of essential value the debtor is established in his claim.

If silver should be demonitized in the interest of the creditor class and because it is too plentiful, how much more should gold be demonetized in the interest of the debtor class and because of its scarcity? Especially since the debtor class is the great majority and of the strugling laborers.

Our big sister knows all about these things and we wish she would give us some straight answers direct from the shoulder.

Most great metropolitan papers dismiss the subject with a pooh! and declare that none but the elect should mention such matters.

Please turn on the light.

AN exchange notes approvingly that "Gov. Hogg says that congress was guilty of a usurpation of powsr in passing the bounty act and that Texas, by accepting bounty under it, would become an accomplice in the crime." Let's see how this will work. It is generally considered by democrats that a protective tariff is a flagrant usurpation of power by congress. The democratic national platform denounces the present tariff as a fraud, a robbery and an atrocious act of unconstitutionality. Yet Texas receives regularly with the governor's sanction and abetment, her share of the bounty and booty under this tariff as a manufacturer of protected goods. Why not refuse to manufacture such goods at the penitentiaries? Or when they are manufactured why not put them on the market at a discount in price equal to the protective duties? Here is a rich chunk of reductio absurdum for narrow eyed patriots.—Dallas News.

A Delightful Situation.

Myrtalla—"So you're engaged to Jack? Of course you really love him?"

Estella—"Oh, yes; and what's better still, all the other girls love him, too."—New York Herald.

THE old rule of competition has about served out its usefulness, and way is being made for co-operation.

The destructive principle of competition being founded in the ignorance and selfishness of barbarians, it is easily perverted to the use of unscrupulus and cunning men.

A very respectable number of fossils still believe that the old rule of supply and demand regulated all prices. While the fact is, this rule is being suspended every day for the enrichment of cunning men. Co-operation means peace and prosperity to the race and joy and happiness to all mankind.

Co-operation means chrystilization and concentration and working to one end, the general good. This theory is very unpopular now.

Opposition to Brittish tyrany was at one time unpopular, but when the time was ripe the time servers took up the cry and the flock followed.

Secession was at one time unpopular but it had its culmination and, co-operation will yet come.

Lizzie Borden Trial.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 12.—The second week of the Borden trial opened with an appearance of increased interest as the uncertainties of the case unfold. The indications of a severe struggle over the admission of the stenographer's notes of Miss Borden's testimony at the inquest were plentiful this morning in the piles of books containing authorities to be cited pro and con. The evidence was finally excluded.

Dr. Albert C. Dedrick testified to the examination of the bodies on the afternoon of the murder.

Dolan identified the hatchet taken from the floor under Borden's head and described the condition of the blood found with each body. That of Borden was warm and dripping and of Mrs. Borden congealed. He described both bodies and their condition, the condition of the room when found, and gave it as his opinion the wounds found upon the head of Mrs. Borden could have been inflicted by a two-[illegible] of ordinary strength. Adjourned until to morrow.

People's Party.

A meeting of a number of members of the people's party was held at the city hall today.

The object is to provide for the organization of a company to carry on the publication of a party organ. It is proposed to incorporate with three or four thousand dollars capital stock and improve and enlarge the weekly Progress and poverty, which made its appearance several weeks ago. The meeting this afternoon completed the organization.—Fort Worth Gazette.

Seven Happy Months

After 10 Years of Misery

Dyspepsia and Nervousness Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"The past seven months have been the happiest of my life, and I will tell you why. For ten years dyspepsia has caused me indescribable suffering. I was so miserable and nervous all the time I did not know what to do. My stomach would not digest bread and milk, and when I ate anything I could not keep it down.

I had Intense Distress

after eating. Could not sleep but very little, and when I did sleep it seemed to do me no good. I felt as tired when I got up in the morning as I did when I went to bed. My sleep was never free from pain. Life was almost a burden. I could not get anything to cure me, and had given up all hopes of ever being any better.

"My father happened to get a little pamphlet recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla and I thought I would try the medicine. I am so glad that I did take it that I can hardly express my gratitude. It gave me the relief from which I so earnestly desired, restored my appetite and removed all the disagreeable symptoms. I can eat any kind of food and it tastes good. I sleep well and can get up in the morning, eat a hearty breakfast, do a day's work and not feel half as tired as formerly when I did not work at all. I am cured, and Hood's Sarsaparilla did it." MAUDE E. CARKERN, Merwin, Amite Co., Miss.

Texas Offices.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—At the department of justice, Texas seems almost forgotten. The News correspondent called there to-day and is was said nothing at all was being done in the matter of consigning Texas appointments. None of the marshals or district attorneys have yet served four years. The time of Eugene Marshal, district attorney of the northern district, expires on the 18th of June 1894 George Knight succeeded Gen. Cabell as marshal of the northern district on the 27th day of January, 1890. Knight was succeeded by another marshal, but Knights time will be charged up against the present incumbent, in all probability.

Mr. Hannay, district attorney of the east Texas district was appointed in 1892, The time of Marshal Dickson of that district will expire the 5th of next February.

The time of District Attorney Evans of the western district will expire on the 27th day of next January.

It is highly probable that nothing will be done at present toward getting a democrat in the office of collector of internal revenue of the third district. The time of the present incumbent, Joseph N. Burke, will not expire till the 20th of July. As the appointment of the collector of the fourth district was given to Mr. Mills, it is certain that Senator Coke will have the appointment of the collector of the fourth district. In the internal revenue department here this is the view.

Ex-Confederate Meeting.

MCKINNEY, Tex., June 10.—Pursuant to a call of the commander of Camp No. 109 United Confederate Veterans, a number of comrades met at the courthouse with Col. T. M. Scott, commander, presiding. The chair called the meeting to order and explained its object.

The first business was the reading of a circular from Lieutenant General Cabell, announcing that arrangements had been perfected for transportation to Birmingham over two routes—one the Texas & Pacific and Queen & Crescent via Vicksburg; the other over the Texas & Pacific, Iron Mountain & Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham, via Texarkana and Memphis. The cost to be one cent per mile each way measured by the shortest route aggregating a total of about $13.65 not including sleeper or rations.

A circular letter was then read from General Jno. C. Underwood of Chicago, stating that the cost of tickets over the railroad from Birmingham to Chicago will be $10 and in addition about $13 for personal expenses enroute and at Chicago and three tickets to the fair for the three days while there, aggregating $23 all told from Birmingham to Chicago and return, which sum may be increased if any one may have the inclination to do so. It expressly stated that no one but ex-Confederates, their wives and children would be allowed advantage of this trip to Chicago and return.

On motion, John S. Heard and Henry C. Herndon were directed to receive money from such Confederates as desire to take advantage of the trip to Chicago, which money ($10) the committee were directed to forward to Gen. Underwood at Chicago by the 20th of June for tickets. The Tickets from Dallas to Birmingham and from Birmingham to Chicago are limited to August 1st. The train will leave Chicago on the 27th day of July.

It was then moved and carried that a committee of five consisting of W. M. Abernathy, J. M. Pearson, R. L. McLarry, R. C. White and H. C. Mack be authorized to prepare and revise a roster of the camp, to be forwarded by John S. Heard, treasurer, together with a sufficient sum from the treasury to make 10 cents per capita of such revised roster, such rostsr and money to be forwarded to Gen. Geo. C. Moorman, adjutand general United Confederate veterans, New Orleans, in time to reach there before the 1st day of July.

A motion was then carried directing the commander to appoint the number of delegates we may be entitled to, to attend the re-union at Birmingham, Ala., and that he be added to said delegation as a member to appoint a chairman of said delegation whose duty it shall be to see after the badges of said delegation on arrival at Birmingham.

On motion delegates were instructed to vote for the adoption of an amendment to the constitution of the U. C. V. retaining the present status of five divisions in Texas instead of consolidating them into one. The delegates were also instructed to vote for New Orleans as a permanent place of meetings for our re-unions or in case it should not be adopted, to vote for the next re-union to be held at Richmond, Va.

All newspapers in the county are requested to publish these proceedings. Camp adjourned subject to a call of the commander.

Down The Trusts.

Delegates from 29 states held an anti-trust meeting in Chicago last week. Texas was represented by J. K. Bywaters, Thos. H. Franklin and W. A. Shaw.

Various resolutions were offered, all of which went to the proper committee for action. Ignatius Donnelly offered these;

Whereas, Governments are instituted among men to promote the welfare of the people, and laws are enacted to protect honest men and punish rogues and

Whereas, It is unreasonable to ask the virtuous and industrious citizens to maintain, by their toil, the machinery of government for the protection of those who are conspiring illegally to plunder and impoverish them; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we suggest to the people of the United States as a dernier resort—should all other measures fail—the enactment of laws to confiscate the real and personal property of all trusts and combinations; to deny them access to the courts to enforce the collection of their claims, and to withdraw from their property the protection of the laws so, that if it should appear to the satisfaction of the jury in the prosecution of any person for larceny that the property taken belonged to any unlawful combination or trust, it shall be the duty of the court at once to discharge the party accused of such larcency; and,

Whereas, The Supreme court of the United States has declared the artificial and soulless monsters to be "persons," human beings, and endowed with all the privileges of cititizens, and has authorized them to go from state to state to devour the substance of the people; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we call upon the states and nation to seriously consider this most important subject and to enact such laws as shall limit and circumscribe the growth and power of these unnatural and irresponsible beings and provide for their ultimate extinction, and thus make this indeed a government of the people, by the people and for the people, and not a government of money, by money, and for money.

Texas as It Is.

H. M. EMORY, of Texas.—The real size of Texas is little appreciated in this country. Texas has 275,000 square miles—about the size of France—and is capable of supporting as many people. The population of France is 38,000,000, and the next 100 years will see a population of that size in the state of Texas. There are in Texas 176,000,000 acres of land, or enough to provide every man, woman and child in the United States with a little farm each of about 2 1-2 acres in extent. If every one of the 1,400,000,000 people on the globe had an arm-chair and brought it to Texas there would be room to seat the entire population of the planet, and each occupant would have about four feet of elbow room on every side in which to stretch himself in. There is nothing small about Texas.—Globe Democrat.

THE WABASH LINE.

The Line to Take in Going to the World's Fair.

A very large proportion of the visitors from Arkansas to the World's Columbian Exposition will go via St. Louis. The question at St. Louis will be. "What line must I take to Chicago?" If the traveler wants a high grade of service—speed, safety, comfort convenience—every luxuty in fact that a modern railroad affords, he cannot do eo well as to take the Wabash. If the traveler wants a palace car, he cannot find one more beautiful and luxurious than those of the Wabash line. At the same time the chair cars, and, in fact, all other passenger cars in use on this line, are of the best quality with all modern improvement and conveniences. One great advantage in going to Chicago by the Wabash is that you are landed in the heart of the city, the Dearborn station being within from three to five blocks of the leading hotels and public buildings of the city. Those who want full information of this line and its advantagds will do well to send for the new and attractive Wabash folder, "A Few Facts for Visitors to the Columbian Exposition." This contains much valuable information, not only about the road, but what it will cost to visit the fair, the leading hotels, how to reach the exposition grounds, general hints, etc. General Passenger Agent F. Chandler, St. Louis, will respond to all inquiries for information.—Little Rock (Ark.) Democrat.

Dont's For Young People.

Dont forget that marriage is the foundation of a new family, not the union of two old ones.

Don't marry one whose tastes and ideals are so different from your own that there could never be singleness of aim and purpose in the home.

Don't marry anybody till satisfied that life together will be bearable and enjoyable, as long as both shall live.

Don't expect marriage to make a great change in the habits and aims of a young man—or young woman either.

Don't try to win love by flattery.

Don't allow yourself to be won in that way.

Don't try to buy love by rich and numerous gifts; love got in that way is not worth the having, for it is not love at all.

Don't take anybody that comes along and offers himself, through fear that there may not be another chance. Infinitely better a single life than a married existence full of wretchedness and misery.

Don't marry for physical beauty alone; for unless mated with beauty of mind and spirit it is truly an apple of ashes.

Don't forget, when married, that mutual forbearance is the key note of life-long happiness.—Good Housekeeping.

Texas Newspaper Men At The World's Fair.

At the close of the Texas Press Association meeting, held at Dallas, Tex., May 9th and and 19th inclusive, 1893, the members left on their annual excursion. The destination this time was Chicago and the World's Fair. The Iron Mountain Route bntween Texarkana and St. Louis, was selected as THE OFFICIAL LINE. This selection on the part of the TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION was a wise one, for the reason that the Iron Mountain Route, with its connections, has done more to advertise 'The Lone Star State' throughout the east, north and west, than any other railroad, and the selection of this line for the trip to the World's Fair is a recognition of the friendly feeling in which this road is heald by the Press of Texas, and is proof of their hearty endorsement to any of their friends, or to the public at large, contemplating a trip to to the famous "White City."

This line offers tickets at the lowest of rates, with stop-over privileges, double daily service from Texas points to St. Louis and Chicago, shortest line and equipped with elegant Pullman Buffet sleeping car service, reclining chair cas (in which the seats are free) and the new model high backed adjustable seats id their coaches. Particulars and further information will be cheerfully furnished on application to Jno. C. Lewis. traveling passenger Agent Iron Mountain Route, with headquarters at Austin, Texas., or by any ticket agent of the Texas & Pacific R'y, or I. & G, N. R. R.

Be sure your tickets to St. Louis, Chicago and the world's Fair read via Iron Mountain Route. H. T. Townsend, general passenger and ticket agent, St. Louis, Mo.

Changing Diseases.

In that delightful book, "Ridder Grange," the husband of Pomona gives as his reason for not removing from a malarial neighborhood, that it don't do for a man at his time of life to go about changing his diseases and adding, that there are diseases incident to almost every locality, and he likes a disease he is used to.

Now, in case of malarial diseases, aside from the unwillingness of patients to "change diseases," it is generally not convenient to change their residences. If this were done in every case, some of our most thriving communities would be depopulated.

Nothing is left to do therefore but to fortify oneself against malarial influences. For this purpose Drs. Starkey & Palen's Compound Oxygen has proved itself in the past 23 years the most efficient thing in the world.

Any person desiring to change diseases for health should write us a plain statement of their case, when, if possible, the way will be pointed out. The consultation is without charge. Address Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch Street, Philadelphia, or San Francisco, New York, and Toronto, Ont.

Coming to Texas.

We wonder if it be true, as rumored, that President Cleveland has promised to make a visit to Texas this fall as the guest of the Hon. Ben T. Cable. It is known that Mr. Cable has an extensive ranch in Texas and that the game has been carefully preserved for the last ten years. The ponds in which Mr. Cable has succefully experimented at breeding pompano and black bass are the the largest in the country. It is by no means unlikely that the president is anxions to make a raid into that veritable sportsman's paradise.—Chicago Record.

Whereas, The intimate relations long held by our deceased brother with the members of this alliance render it proper that we should place on record our appreciation of his services as an alliance man and his merits as a man, therefore be it resolved, by Sister Grove Alliance No. 775, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our brother, who has been called from his labor to rest.

Wanted a Crowd.

HAZELHURST, Miss., June 14.—At 2 o'clock to-day the trap fell and another of the Davis murderers was sent to eternity. It will be remembered that Dr. Davis was robbed and murdered last September by a mob of negroes. Two were caught and hanged March 22. Cæsar Hennington, the one executed to-day, was captured last March. He made a short talk on the scaffold, saying there were not as many people present as he hoped to have seen, as he wanted his death to be a lesson to his race.

When a Wise Woman Smiles.

That is a wise woman who can smile at a compliment, be pleased and forget it.

That is a wise woman who can smile at an insult and never see it.

That is a wise woman who can smile when the little worries are coming about and make of them little bits of fun.

That is a wise woman who can smile when she gets up, and who can go to sleep with a smile, for in this way she greets the coming day, and at the end of it she has blotted out all the disagreeables.

That is a wise woman who can smile for her friends and enemies; it will keep the first and it is the best weapon against the last.

That is a wise woman who can smile, no matter how she feels. She is a woman who has learned to rule not only herself, but will gain domain over the cook. And that means that she governs comfort.—Philadelphia Times.

A New Variety of Hogs.

BONHAM, Fannin Co., Texas., June 10.—A party from the nation brought in a black razor-back hog which attracted a great deal of attention. It was in a large wooden cage and was being expressed to a party in McKinney. The cause of the attraction was that its feet were shaped like a mule's feet. There was no split in the hoof like the ordinary hog. This same party brought in a hog from the same neighborhood which had six well developed legs.

Texas Farmer, a democratic paper says:

"This is a great country. The bankers of New York, according to late dispatches, have agreed to furnish the government gold in case it should need it. This is kind and considerate. What a great government it must be that bankers will thus condescend to help it! What a great government it is that will allow itself to be thus in the grasp of the bankers!"

Said an old farmer who had lately joined the alliance:

"I have learned to be a friend to myself, I have also learned to love my wife and children better than the party boss; besides I have learned that I have long been systemetically robbed by law, and that it is my bounded duty to stop it, and that to do so, I must vote with my eyes open.—Polk County Independent.

Too True.

The only reason that there is not less evil in the world, is simply because men, or society rather, condone what they are afraid to censure. Because position and standing in life shelter from censure those who are fully as guilty as the poor, friendless and helpless. When wrong is condemned because it is wrong, despite who may be the perpetrator, there will be a purification of the moral atmosphere.—Shreveport Times.

One of the pests of to day is the partisan organ. It defends its party, right or wrong. It suppresses the truth; it suggests what is false; it misrepresents its opponents whenever it expects thereby to benefit its own side. It juggles with its own moral sense, It confuses the public conception of rectitude. It does the devil's own work by misleading consience by making the worst appear the better reason. by deceiving the simple, calumniating the good. It prefers to be victorious rather than to be right. It esteems party success above the public welfare. It puts the triuph of its faction before the prosperity of the nation. It degrades the meaning of patriotism and trains its followers to be unworthy citizens of the republic.—Carolina Columbian.

The Silent Drummer.

Did you ever think, what your advertisement in the newspaper is doing for you? When you close your place of business in the evening and go home to your family and fireside, not thinking about your business at all, then it is that the paper is being poured over in hundreds of homes—the homes from which your trade is drawn. And there stands your advertisement doing its work eloquently and silently, but surely, and if you have taken pains to make it attractive its work will be all the more effective.

This is repeated over and over again, and is no doubt what inspired by some writer to call newspaper advertising a—"Silent Drummer."

The Question of Damages.

A News reporter called upon a prominent Galvestion lawyer yesterday and asked his opinion as to what the government would do toward helping the sufferers of the Ford's theater disaster and he replied:

"You know no one can bring a suit against the government All you can do is to file your claim.

"I, however, think that when congress meets, a liberal appropriation will be made for the benefit of the sufferers; probably a good deal more than they were worth.

"If the building had been pronounced safe by a government officer who was competent I do not see that they have any legal claim against the United States. And if the building had been declared unsafe I do not think the government would have occupied it."

Its Equal May Never be Seen.

No one now in existence will live to see in this country, or any where on earth, such an exposition as the Columbian fair at Chicago. These things come high, and it is doubtful whether an experiment on a corresponding scale will be repeated in a hundred years.—Cincinnati Gazette.

The Effort Will Succeed.

The Galveston-Dallas News is going to make a supreme effort to get out a special edition of 100,000 copies devoted to the resources of Texas. With the success of The News in this line in the past in view, it would be a splendid paper to circulate at the world's fair.—Halletsville New Era.

A FEW Testimonials from persons who have been cured by the use of Hill's Tablets.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:
DEAR SIR:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. Have chewed and smoked for twenty-five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it.
B. M. JAYLORD, Leslie, Mich.

DOBBS FERRY, N. Y.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Some time ago I sent for $1.00 worth of your Tablets for Tobacco Habit. I received them all right and, although I was both a heavy smoker and chewer, they did the work in less than three days. I am cured.
Truly yours, MATHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 6.

PITTSBURGH, PA.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to speak a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was strongly addicted to the use of liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a heavy and constant drinker, but after using your Tablets but three days he quit drinking, and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have waited four month before writing you, in order to know the cure was permanent. Yours truly,
MRS. HELEN MORRISON.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO:—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a miracle in my case. I have used morphine, hypodermically, for seven years, and have been cured by the use of two packages of your Tablets, and without any effort on my part. W. L. LOTEGAY.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE COLORADO LAKE CHAUTAUQUA.

The Colorado Lake Chautauqua Association (an organization existing under and by virtue of the laws of Texas) takes pleasure in announcing the following as coming within the perview of its aims and purposes:

First. "To promote the habits of systematic reading and study in nature, art, science, history, secular and sacred literature, in connection with the routine of daily life; to give college graduates a view of the college course; to secure for those whose educational privileges have been limited, the college student's general outlook upon the world and life, and to encourage close, connected, and persistent thinking."

Second. To provide ways and means of furnishing to the teachers of Texas, at the latest practicable cost, facilities for improving themselves in the science and art of teaching, as well as for acquiring a deeper and more thorough knowledge of the subjects embraced in the common school curriculum.

Third. To provide, at moderate cost, for all classes of our people—the lawyer, the physician, the merchant— suitable place and a periodical opportunity for unsurpassed physical recreation, and for mental, moral and spiritual elevation and improvement.

To carry out these purposes the Association has purchased one of the most eligible pieces of property to be found between the dam and the head of the lake navigation. It comprises about 1200 acres of land situated two and one half miles above the dam, as the crow flies, or six miles by water, on the south bank of the Colorado river, on which has a frontage of three and one-half miles. The conformation of the land and the nature of the soil are such as to give it a drainage that is well nigh perfect. After the hardest rains, the surplus water at once passes down gentle declivities into the Colorado or one of the small tributaries. For this reason the property is remarkably free from that trio of pests, mud, malaria and mosquitoes.

Among other advantages characteristic of this property may be mentioned its easy accessibility, by land and water, from Austin; its high elevation above the sea and the surrounding country; the extensive and beautiful views that may be had from its many high points, and the full view of the Colorado lake.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Much of this property has already been divided into blocks, lots, street, alleys, drives, walks, and parks and is now of record.

On Chautauqua hill, that seems to have been designed by nature for this purpose, there is in course of erection a pavillion that, in point of architectural beauty, adaptability to its purpose and seating capacity, cannot be equaled south of Mason and Dixon's line. On the brow of this hill overlooking the lake, one hundred and fifty feet above its surface, commanding a matchless view of it in either direction for several miles may now be seen a that cannot be duplicated on the continent. No description of it can give one even a tolerble conception of its superior excellence. It has to be seen to be appreciated.

Among the contemplated improvements in the near future is where Texas youths may receive such a character of training and instruction as will fit them for pursuing their studies further in college or university, or for entering upon the active duties of life. The site of this institution, known as is one of unsurpassed fitness andbeauty. It is an ideal place for "rearing the tender mind," for fashioning the plastic child into a model man. It is sufficiently near the city for religious and social purposes, and sufficiently far to escape moral and physical contamination.

It is a part of the contemplated plans to erect a large, commodious and on a site that seems by nature best adapted for this purpose. The object of this hotel will be to secure the patronage of those persons who seek refuge from the hot, malarial atmosphere of Southern Louisiana and Texas, in the summer season, and likewise to accommodate in the winter season, those who flee from the rigor of northern winters.

WATER.

The association will at once provide for an abundant supply of water. The feasibility of using electricity for pumping water has been satisfactorily demonstrated, and the power at the house at the dam will furnish electricity for this purpose.

It is a fact worthy of remark that the Chautauqua grounds are as near to the dam as Austin is. Hence all persons who may conclude to live permanently at the Chautauqua will have all the advantages of the city, with none of its disadvantages.

There will be three (possibly more) landings for every variety of river craft. The landings will be built with special reference to large boats.

An inclined railway will be constructed from one of the landings to the top of Chautauqua hill.

LIGHT.

The same wire that is to carry the electric fluid for pumping water in the day time, will be used at night for lighting the pavillion and private residences. The cost of this lighting will, in the opinion of Mayor McDonald, be much less than that made by kerosene and far more convenient.

TRANSPORTATION.

Captain Sheperd is now engaged in the construction of a big boat that will have a carrying capacity of 2000 people. This boat will make schedule trips and have a special landing place on the grounds of the Chautauqua asssociation. In addition to this, every character of craft will ply between Austin and Chautauqua and fully meet, at small cost, all possible demands of transportation

SAFEGUARDS.

All persons who may cast their lot with the Chautauqua are assured that every precaution will be taken to protect them in their lives, morals and manners. None but persons of unquestionable character will be admitted to its privileges. Wine, whisky, beer, and all other things that tend to lower the moral srandard, will be studiously excluded from the Chautauqua grounds. A special police force wil be on duty day and night to see that no one infringes the Chautauqua regulations.

AMUSEMENTS, RECREATION, ETC.

For the guests and patrons of Chautauqua the sources of amusement and recreation will be numerous, varied and of a high order. The lecture platform will be filled by the best talent that can be secured. Within the walls of the great pavillion the voices of the ablest lecturers in America will be heard. All questions and all shades of opinions will be represented. The Chautauqua is to be the people's great university, where all classes of men and women may come and drink deep and long draughts of knowledge. If one would hear the ablest and most modern and advanced thoughts on art, science, literature, history, religion, and economics, let him come to Chautauqua and he will hear them.

If one has fallen into a state of physical dilapidation and desires to recover most speedily his lost ground, he will find at Chautauqua all the physical appliances for building himself up anew. If one be fond of water he may swim, sail, row, or recline on the spacious deck of a palatial steamer. He may walk, or ride on horseback, or over long stretches of fine mountain roads, and at every step view a scenery that for softness, mellowness and beauty can not be surpassed. That rare combination of earth, sky and water from which the poet and painter draw their inspiration is to be seen here in the highest perfection.

ACCOMMODATIONS.

The situation of Chatauqua with reference to Austin, together with the nature, scope and variety of its exercises, renedrs it very necessary for a large number of people to remain permanently on the grounds during each season. The necessity of meeting the demands of this class of patronage is obvious. To this end a considerable part of the grounds have been divided into lots for camping purposes. These lots are being sold at reasonable prices and on very easy terms. The purchaser of a lot may buy a small tent or erect an inexpensive cottage on his lot and do his own cooking on a cheap scale, or, if he prefers, he may sleep in his tent or cottage and take his meals at a restaurant, which the Association will erect at some convenient place on its grounds; or, if he is financially able he may live in a sumptuous style at the hotel that will be erected for the accommodation of this class of patronage.

By these means one may live as inexpensively as he pleases at Chautauqua, and still live comfortably and enjoy all its advantages.
